I oppose a sales tax in Oregon. This state is in dire need of new direction that supports families, farms. The state has lost significant employers, housing and cost of living is off the charts with no safety net.

The last thing its citizens need is another tax. Oregon does a terrible job managing money! Every department is constantly out of funds, the money collected rarely goes where it is needed. Stop with all the pet projects and special interests groups. Learn to operate with a budget just like the rest of us.
