Topic:

Why the hurry? Are you afraid oregonians will reject not only this job killing- business closures and leave the state- families being pushed to the brink? You are playing chicken with the welfare of this state . The referendum vote is scheduled for November NOT MAY. This is a pure attempt to circumvent the rights of oregonians in the up coming election cycle- all to keep their places in legislature and the fact they don't have to deal with their failure to make and create a budget that won't hide money spent on pet items of the governor and those legislators who can't control their personal spending
