

Submitter: kathleen sweet

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4080

As the owner of a small rural property, this type of supplemental power source would be a great benefit to assist, especially in case of power outage. Power outages, despite great effort by the electricity suppliers, can result during severe weather which we suffer too often. A Portable system can be used during every season and be a great benefit to family and farm.