To Whom it May Concern,

I Anne Huebert am opposed to changing the voting date for repeal of the new gas tax from November's ballot to May.

Not only is there no reason for this move, the measure to repeal this tax needs to pass as soon as possible. It reflects the desire of most of Oregon's voting population anyway. The tax, paid by the many, benefits very few citizens. Rural Oregon should not be forced to pay for a small percentage of urban Oregon's benefit.

Respectfully,
Anne Huebert
