

I am opposed to the Joint Special Committee on referendum Petition 2026-302. This issue should be decided in November. Delaying this referendum is a a political move and is another example of the state government's contempt for the citizens and self serving nature.

R. Stewart