Please leave this for the November election. This issue was so close that the vote was delayed waiting for the last democratic senator to return from leave in order to cast the last vote that pushed this over the line. That alone speaks to the need for the voters or weigh in on this issue. The November election gets the most turn out and that is where this issue should be aired. I am a Democratic voter, and I am really unhappy with our governors effort to ignore voters and public opinion. I will probably vote for a republican governor in the next election.
