

Oregon Legislators should be representing the people of Oregon, specifically in their district. If 250,000 Oregonians sign a petition to place an issue on a specific ballot, that is their will. Legislators will be circumventing the will of the people if they do not facilitate that. To do otherwise is a violation of your office and is malfeasance.