You passed a tax bill legally and I signed a petition to repeal it to go before the people of the state of Oregon. The petition got enough signatures to say that the people of Oregon want to vote on it. According to the law it was to be put on the November ballot. I fully understand why that wouldn't be very popular for most of the Legislators and the Governor but it's the law. For once in your life try obeying the law and quit trying to manipulate it to your benefit. Remember you were the ones that supported this! Now it's time to take your lumps for taking some very bad advice from the Governor.
