I am a long time resident of the State of Oregon with many vested interests. I am apposed to this attempt to move the election date.. It is a obvious attempt to stifle the voice and will of the people by the government. It grieves me that such tactic are being used and shows the contempt the current out of touch governing body has for the people they are elected to represent. The miss uses of DMV and other regulatory agency's to tax, imposes fees, fines and control of all access to State lands and all aspects of privet life in the State has become to burdensome.

I like so many long time residence will be moving. Selling my property holdings and moving to less regulated and taxed hungry out of touch States should this type of governance be allowed to continue.
