As a citizen of the state of Oregon, I oppose this sham vote that the Governor is trying to sneak into the may ballot in hope of drowning out the wishes of 250,000 Oregon citizens against the unneeded tax hike by her and the Dominate Democratic side of the Oregon legislature. That in it self should null and void the tax that kotek wants to put through. Just because the governor can't control the tax money and it's proper use why do the citizens of the state of Oregon have to pay for her constant mishandling of tax money controlled by her. Kotek is a poor example of a leader and showed br remove from office by a show of cause. She has pushed Oregon into the top 4 in the nation for highest gas prices and she wants to add to it, then there is rent and housing costs which she has not attempted to control. I moved back to Oregon after living in Nevada for 12 yrs, which was the best part of my life. The situation that this governor has created, makes what used to be affordable living into a trapped society who can't get out of the state fast enough, or in my case can't afford it because of her lack of control of rented properties. There isn't enough time and paper to write down all this Governor's faults other than she is trying her best to make Oregon into California north. Good Bless and make the right decision or a trash collector will replace the Democrats in this state
