The laws of Oregon are the laws by which we citizens are supposed to abide. We collected signatures for the Referendum-No Gas Tax and successfully turned in almost triple what we were required to submit in good faith. The legislature made these laws, but you are losing our trust if you are going to be making goals a moving target. Your word should represent the truth in black and white. Keep the vote for the Referendum for November, which is what we submitted on the signature sheets. Stop waffling to suit yourselves. Your example promotes lawlessness for the younger generation and says you are not to be trusted.
