We the voters of Oregon have already spoken our wishes to have the referendum on the gas tax to be voted on in November. It's completely unethical and immoral that the vote is to be placed on the May ballot. Our signatures said LOUD and CLEAR that we want this voted for in November. Trying to effect the outcome by switching it to May is an underhanded, dirty and disgusting attempt to push through a tax that the majority of Oregonians are against. How many times do the people of Oregon have to spell out that we are sick of being over taxed and underrepresented? This is absolutely despicable!

We the people want this issue to be on the November ballot. NOT THE MAY BALLOT!
