

Regarding SB 1598

I appose this legislation.

This proposal takes decision making from the individual (or medical professional) and places it in the hands of unelected health officials.

This is not about anti-medicine but rather who decides these important medical decisions.

COVID illustrated the errors that were made when unelected officials make universal decisions rather than competent medical professionals.

Sincerely,

Larry Dickson