

To Whom It May Concern,

I strongly oppose SB 1599. Moving a referred measure from the General Election to the Primary Election undermines voter participation and the intent of the referral process. Measures of this magnitude should be decided during high-turnout general elections to ensure the broadest possible voter representation. I urge legislators to respect the will of the voters and oppose this bill.

Sincerely,

Taryn McKillion
Resident of Washington County and Born Oregonian