To whom it may concern, I strongly oppose moving the election date for the parts of chapter 1, Oregon Laws 2025 (special session). The people have said No to more taxes more than once, this is just a political move to try and save face and the hopes that there won't be as many voter's turnout. The Election date needs to Stay on the November ballot as it should be, so as a reminder of what Our Leaders have done to try and raise taxes yet once again on Oregonians. No means No and our leaders took an oath to work for the people not against. You have enough of our hard-earned money already, use it wisely and there will be no need for more.
