Dear joint committee on referendum 2026-302,
I am writing to demand you keep this referendum on the November ballot. Anything less would be fraud on your part. It's true that you are able to move this, but it is also true that Oregonians wanted it on the November ballot. The sheer number of signatures gathered prove this. One reason you would want to move it is because you are as ashamed and don't want to run against it on a November ballot. But it's probably more accurate to say you are unabashedly unashamed and don't care what the people think. You consider yourselves oligarchs who can manage every aspect of our lives, regardless of your failure to manage our money properly, like a beast that is never satiated. If you change the date, however, people will just be much more clear about your motives. Further, if this ended up failing because of the confusion of changing the date (which is so obviously your goal), you would further expose yourself to the crystal clear understanding that you care nothing for the will of the people. You need to face the consequences of your actions instead of attempting to punish the people for them. Your attempt at sabotaging this referendum is transparent and odious. The people will not forget it. Please take this advice: live within your means and cut what is unnecessary and then you will be able to plow the roads and fix the potholes.

Sincerely,

One furious Citizen,
Victoria Marshall
