This was voted on by the citizens of Oregon to refer the transportation tax to the November ballot. Over 250,000 signatures were obtained demonstrating that this tax was unpopular and not decided on by Oregon voters. Clearly the governor and state legislature realize how this transportation tax will not be approved by the voters and they are trying to find anyway to rig the system. This is a systemic problem with this administration and it needs to stop. It is time to listen to the voters of Oregon.
