House Committee on Revenue

Dear Chair Representative Nathanson, Vice-Chairs Representative Reschke and Walters and members of the Committee;

Re: House Bill 4014

Another baffling legislative bill or, perhaps the sponsor of this bill just wanted to interject some humor into this Sessions proceeding.

HB 4014 would "require the Legislative Revenue Officer to study the state financial system." Good grief! Would that mean the Legislative Revenue Officer is not already familiar with our state's financial system? Well, that only prompts the question – why not?

That the Legislative Revenue Officer need be told to study the state financial system does not improve my confidence level in state officers. But perhaps I misread the intent of the bill.

Sincerely,
Richard Wisner
