It's a fair deal for Oregon to have partial ownership of the Trailblazers if the owner wants the state to cover the cost of the team's NBA mandated upgrades.

Oregonians did not vote for the NBA's policy changes and it's not MODA center that wants the upgrades - it's the trailblazer's owner who wants these upgrades.

This is a business investment. Rich people don't get special treatment.

Oregonians say partial ownership of the trailerblazers or no deal.
