My name is Ronald Sutton 61 years ago i was a five-year-old boy standing by my mother and father watching horses cross the finish line at Portland meadows, today I am the president of the horseman's association, breeder of Oregon bred horses, owner of many horses over the years .Lucky to win quite a few races over the years. My son and daughter are both involved in the industry. My 25-year-old grandson was in his first win picture when he was six months old at Salem fairgrounds. I have a seven-year-old grandson that attended his first race at Tillamook fair. WE are a family that enjoys traveling throughout the state attending the county fairs and enjoying the animals, for me it is definitely an activity that I hope will continue for generations to come. My family owns and operates Sutton's Tire and Chain with locations in Portland and Medford.
