California has some of the strictest gun laws in the country. And yet they recently had another shooting, this time in Stockton.

It's almost like bad guys don't obey "gun-free zone" signs. To them, that's a wolf's buffet.

The Founders didn't add the Second Amendment as a cute option. It was more of a "just in case tyranny or invasion shows up" clause. The RIGHT of the PEOPLE to bear arms SHALL NOT be infringed. Putting a fee on law abiding citizens IS infringement!

Maybe instead of turning responsible citizens into paperwork violators, we bring back actual gun-safety education in high schools. We don't even ENFORCE current laws anymore so why add new ones?

Are we going to tell the Cartels that have invaded our state to limit their ammo, or just the mama-bear-soccer-moms that are trying to protect their kids from the monsters y'all allow to run wild on the streets?
