

Submitter: Thomas Putnam

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4145

This proposal makes two tiers of rights within the population, and puts known domestic abusers, racists, and otherwise aggressive people above regular citizens.

This also creates additional undue financial burdens on exercising a right shown more and more every day to be essential to the security of a free state.