

Submitter: Manpreet Khural

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4145

I believe this is an extreme take on gun reform. It especially is bad for minority and underprivileged communities in having to jump through more hoops. Increased redtape around firearms purchases disproportionately affects minority and underprivileged communities who due to economic hardship may already have to live in areas of higher violent crime, necessitating some form of protection.