

Submitter: William B Faubion

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB4145

I find that criminals will do what they want. If they break one law they will break many laws without the second thought. But a law abiding citizen who follows the rules, will only be punished by following this new bill. The law abiding citizen has done nothing and still gets penalties because criminals break laws. Myself as a law abiding citizen do not feel it is just to be fined more to bare arms because bad people are bad by their nature.